Brothers Herrmann Stage Pitching Duel

Narberth Just Beats Gladwyne, 3-2, to Hold Tie-Lead

VS. MALVERN SATURDAY

By JOHN MULLIGAN

Narberth still finds itself in the thick of the battle over Main Line League second-half honors, after a real scare given by the youthful Gladwyne aggregation.

Skipper Gene Davis' defending champions chalked up their 10th victory in 11 starts last Sunday by nosing out George Nellings' "kids" in a thriller, 3-2 at the borough playground. Since Coatesville downed Berwyn on Saturday to deadlock for the top and also defeated West Phillies on the Sabbath, Narberth and the Coates are in a death grip over honors.

The league has changed its plans in connection with tomorrow's layout. Instead of staging those much-discussed forfeited contests which were ordered played, the rained out games (three of them) of last Saturday, will be slated. League officials will decide later as to when the forfeited tilts will be played.

Change Layout

This means that Narberth will meet Malvern here tomorrow. Downingtown will play at Gladwyne and Brookline will invade the lair of West Phillies. No games will be played Sunday because Monday is Labor Day and the teams will be taking part in double bills.

Some 2000 rooters were kept on the edge of their seats as Narberth battled Gladwyne last Sunday. And for five innings they probably were of the opinion that Davis and his gang were due for a stunning jolt administered by the last-place Gladwyneites.

For five innings Russ Herrmann, who was pitching against his brother, Al, held the borough stickmen without the semblance of a safety. Gladwyne scored a lucky run in the second and added one in its sixth to give it what looked to be a giant lead under the circumstances of the younger Herrmann's work on the mound.

But the fireworks broke forth in the sixth, Narberth pushing across three runs and then holding the visitors scoreless for the other three.

After two were retired Joe Rubincam, borough leftfielder, was hit by a pitcher and then Buddy Walker poled what looked like a certain home run to left-center. However, the veteran Jimmy Keyes, a former borough topper, made a sensational stop of the liner, cutting it down to a single. Harry Fox, little Narberth center-fielder then crashed a triple to the road in left, scoring "Ruby" and Walker. Fox spiked the rubber later on Joey Burns' one-bagger to the same field.

Lady Luck helped Gladwyne to get its first run. Russ Herrmann whiffed, but Henry Arnone walked and went to second on a passed ball. Dave Stroup fanned and then Otto Webb waited out Herrmann for a free ticket. Harvey Cook, Jr., who like Stroup lives in Narberth and who was catching for Gladwyne, then hit a roller to short.

Throws Wild

Mickey Gavin took it nicely, but Tanny Ralston failed to cover second base for the forceout. Arnone rounded third and sprinted for the plate. Gavin looked up and his hurried throw, which would have nailed the runner, was too high for Catcher Joey McCahon to handle.

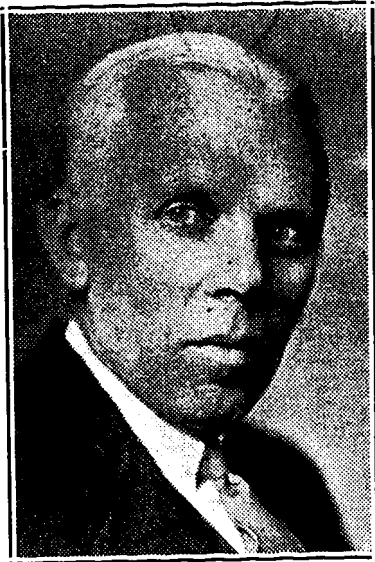

In the Gladwyne sixth R. Herrmann was safe on a scratch hit to short and Arnone struck out. Stroup forced Herrmann out at second and then promptly stole the keystone sack. Webb walked and the bases were loaded when A. Herrmann hit Cook. Another free ticket issued to George Myers forced home the second run.

Al Herrmann, who had a bit of trouble with his control, walked four and struck out eight. His brother set six down on strikes and handed out four walks.

Commissioner Ridgway Tells Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotarians Body is Needed

MEMBER FROM MAIN LINE

A Park Commission in Montgomery County will be appointed in the near future, William D. Ridgway, president of the county commissioners, told Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotarians this week.

Consisting of five members, it will include a Main Line representative. "We do not contemplate the creation of a park system such as that of Westchester County, N. Y., but we do feel that there is definite need of looking to the future and setting aside park areas," Mr. Ridgway said.

Daughters of British Rotarians Are Delighted With U. S. Methods, Spirit

Miss Mary Sallon and Miss Molly Kimberly, of Birmingham, England, two English girls who are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Pearson, of Avon road, Merion, this week, are particularly thrilled with the kindness and courtesy of the people they have met in this country. They are also intrigued with the labor-saving devices which make home work so much easier.

Miss Sallon and Miss Kimberly arrived from Boston on Tuesday evening with twenty-three other English girls, who, after leaving this vicinity, will go to Washington and Buffalo, N. Y., before returning to England. Miss Sallon and Miss Kimberly are the daughters of British Rotarians. Mrs. William Shakerly and Mrs. Gordon Bradley are conducting the tour, which is an international gesture of friendship between Rotary clubs in this country and those of England.

These girls are being entertained at the homes of the Philadelphia Rotary Club members so that they will come into close contact with American ways. On Wednesday they were the

Around Our Town

Since the appearance of the famous sunflower it seems that some Democrats among our readers think someone's brain should be racked to nominate a Democratic flower, then perhaps they, too, could find it growing in the square and brag about it. We are open for suggestions. The mot juste seems to escape us. To get into the true Democratic mood, we should choose a flower that is best known by its initials. However, initials don't seem to be the thing this season in the floral world. We did know someone once who named the flowers in her garden: There were Nancy Nasturtium, Phyllis Phlox and Sammy Snapdragon; but I don't think she ever initialed them. There are those of us who would like to give our opponents the century plant as a symbol—they only appear on the scene every hundred years. The dandyism affords a neat analogy: it is everybody's friend, with a shining face and head that becomes fuzzy after a short time. But we'll have to postpone this discussion temporarily and wander in the garden, hoping for an inspiration.

Fishing seems to be a favorite sport among Narberth residents. Mr. C. J. Haywood, Mr. Edward McDermion, Mr. William Haywood and Mr. W. H. Heard had quite a considerable success on a deep-sea fishing trip off Wildwood, N. J., last week. They are particularly proud of an eight-and-one-half-pound flounder which was caught by Mr. William Haywood. Mr. McDermion said that the most exciting time they had was with some man-eating sharks, part of the school which has been sighted off Long Island and New Jersey this summer. Although the sharks were only young ones, about three feet long, they put up a terrific struggle when caught. The men, in accordance with the tradition of the sea, killed the sharks and threw them back, for although they are young, these man-eaters could do considerable damage if they got ahold of anyone.

Vandiver Post Will Erect $6000 Home

Bala-Cynwyd Legion Purchases Lot on Conshohocken State Road for Site

An agreement of sale was reached Tuesday for the purchase of a lot on Conshohocken State road near Cynwyd Estates, by the Thomas D. Vandiver Post, American Legion, Bala-Cynwyd, from the Merion Cemetery Company. Plans call for the erection of a one-story and basement post headquarters on this hillside site, with work to start about October 1. The total investment will reach about $6000.

This lot, 85 feet by 125 feet, was released from a township lien at the July meeting of the Lower Merion commissioners in order to permit the post to purchase the ground.

The annual election of the Vandiver Post will be held Tuesday evening at the present Legion headquarters, Bala avenue near Levering Mill road.

New Yorkers, Pistol Match Victors, Set Mark of 1400

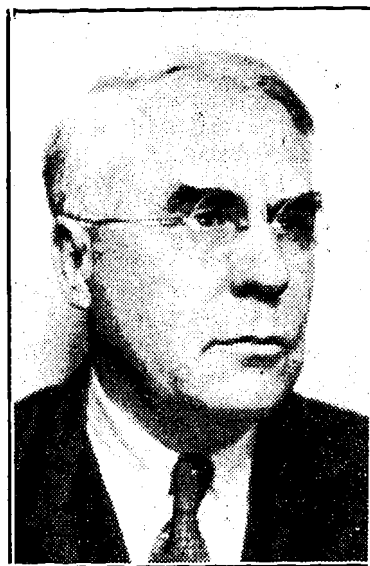

Within six points of a world's record, New York City's police team, with a score of 1400, captured the third annual invitation revolver match at the Lower Merion range at Wynnewood last Saturday, and was awarded a bronze plaque. Lower Merion's No. 1 team tied for fourth place with 1359, its No. 2 team taking 20th position with 1240.

Mule Goes on Rampage

Before Patrolman Fred Blank, of Lower Merion, from a patrol car in modern cowboy style, could throw a lariat over its head, a white mule Sunday pawed up the greensward of Dr. George Wilson at Old Gulph and Hagsford roads, fell into a well and came out again, through flower beds, onto the open road and capture. The animal belongs to A. E. Wohlert, Narberth nurseryman.

Two scarlet fever patients, May Buchanan, 11, of Homewood avenue, and Jean Duncan, 8, of Sabine avenue, were reported this week by Narberth's Health Officer George B. Suplee.

W. E. Rosengartens Return From Shore to Find Home Ransacked

THIEVES LOOT HOTEL

This week there was a sign hanging above the front door of the home of Walter E. Rosengarten, Lower Merion Township engineer, at Overbrook Hills. It read: "No use coming back. You got everything."

The sign is directed to the thieves who entered the Rosengarten home over the week-end while members of the family were spending a holiday at the seashore.

When the Rosengartens returned from Ocean Gate, N. J., they found the second floor had been ransacked. Clothing and jewelry valued at $300 had been stolen, along with two radios. Every suit owned by Mr. Rosengarten, except the one he was wearing, was taken.

Entrance to the home was gained by breaking a screen door and the glass of the rear door.

A guest from Merion, Mrs. Bernard J. Carlin, was among the victims of safe crackers at an exclusive Spring Lake, N. J., hotel robbery early Saturday morning. Jewels valued at more than $1,000 had been deposited in the hotel safe by her, a check disclosed.

While guests in the fashionable Shoreham hotel were asleep, a gang of armed men, wearing white masks and white gloves, swarmed into the deserted hotel lobby at 3 o'clock, cowed a lone clerk working behind the desk, cracked open the hotel safe and escaped with nearly $30,000 in jewelry and cash, mostly the property of summer visitors.

Wynnewood Woman Seriously Hurt in Ardmore Collision

Mrs. Claire Goodman, of Penn road, Wynnewood, suffered a fractured skull and hip, and deep lacerations of the scalp when the machine in which she was a passenger, driven by J. L. Rightmire, of St. Davids, collided with a car driven by Richard Heckscher, of Strafford, at Llanfair road and Montgomery avenue, Ardmore, Sunday morning. The impact drove the Rightmire machine into a horse-drawn Supplee-Wills-Jones Company milk wagon, driven by John McNevin, of Narberth. McNevin saved himself by jumping. Both auto drivers were released on their own recognizance.

Zulzer is Tennis Star

Walter Zulzer won the men's tennis tournament at the Narberth Playgrounds last Sunday, defeating Paul Goodyear in five exciting sets. The semi-finalists who lost to them last week were Robert Stevens and Robert Young. Sixteen had entered the fray, whose early matches were marked by several upsets.

A doubles tournament is now being considered.

shortly, he stated.
"The whole setup in relief should be returned to the local communities although I don't believe the community should pay the entire bill," Mr. Ridgway said, in discussing the work relief program carried on by the county during the depression.

"Under the plan we inaugurated," the speaker said, "local communities paid 25 per cent of the cost of road improvements and the county the other 75 per cent."

"Last year we had a million dollar program with the county supplying $750,000 and local communities $250,000. Fifty-nine miles of roads were built during the year."

"We tried to co-operate with the WPA but it didn't work out well. The morale of workers was broken down by the system of paying them whether they worked or not."

The speaker said that Montgomery avenue will be improved in the near future.

"As many of you know, a bad drainage condition exists on the road at Narberth and other places. The road will be improved either this year or next."

The third annual outing of the county's Rotary Clubs will be held at the Overbrook Golf Club, meeting place of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth unit, on September 15, it was announced by A. J. Esrey, president.

Shirley Temple Coming to Narberth Theatre

"Times Square Lady," glamorous and adventure-filled, is now showing at the Narberth Theatre, with Robert Taylor and Virginia Bruce.

Mary Boland and Charlie Ruggles will amuse Monday and Tuesday in "Early to Bed."

Wednesday, Narberth's award night, Warren William and June Travis will star in "Times Square Playboy."

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Shirley Temple will charm in her latest, "Poor Little Rich Girl."

Comedy and March of Time at Egyptian; "Poppy" Due

Rollicking adventures when "We Went to College" are told in the comedy now playing at the Egyptian. The hilarious fun is enhanced by the capable performance of comedians Charles Butterworth, Hugh Herbert and Una Merkel.

The latest "March of Time" is also on the program this Friday and Saturday (including 2.15 matinee daily). Its subjects:

"King Cotton's Slaves"—tenant farmers, who farm 70 per cent of cotton's 27,000,000 acres, and are headed for trouble.

"Highway Homes"—trailers, fastest growing U. S. industry; they are the permanent homes of 300,000; within 20 years, so Roger Babson predicts, half America will live in them.

"Albania's King Zog"—who has sold out to Mussolini and made the Balkan situation very interesting—for Italy.

Next Monday and Tuesday, Robert Taylor, who abandoned his study of medicine to become filmdom's matinee idol, will play in "Society Doctor."

After Monday, there will be no more matinees except for Saturday and holidays.

Wednesday and (Bank Night) Thursday, America's funniest trouper, W. C. Fields, will play juggler, run a shell game and hawk patent medicines in carnivals, in "Poppy." Ending the week, Lionel Barrymore will star in "Devil Doll."

In connection with the "March of Time," now showing at the Egyptian Theatre, a Quaker Trailer has been on display this week on Bala avenue in front of the Cynwyd Theatre. Made by the Quaker Trailer Company in Devon, it weighs less than two thousand pounds and has the conveniences of a house. Hundreds of people inspected it this week, and marveled at its sleeping accommodations for four, its spacious quarters, electric lights, running water, modern cooking and washing facilities, etc. It will continue on display this Friday and Saturday. The "March of Time" tells of America's fastest growing industry, and of the life of the 300,000 Americans who make trailers their "Highway Homes."

ANOTHER REDUCTION IN LONG DISTANCE RATES
Effective September 1st

Rates are reduced on telephone calls to all points where the station-to-station day rate is more than $1.10 (or over approximately 240 miles). This reduction applies to both station-to-station and person-to-person rates—day, night and all day Sunday.

Also on person-to-person calls to all points, the station-to-station additional minute rate applies after six minutes of conversation.

THIS IS THE SEVENTH REDUCTION IN THE RATES FOR LONG DISTANCE CALLS DURING THE LAST TEN YEARS. It shortens the distance more than ever between friends and relatives in distant places... offers more frequent personal reunions with children at school... the family back home. It permits business men to make contacts in other cities speedily, efficiently... at a still greater economy.

of his visit to the Casey home.
Kirk testified that he did not see the dog until he heard her yelp and looked back to see Fanny running into the postoffice.
Attorney Kildare indicated that he might appeal the magistrate's decision.

Peter C. Barr, of Bala-Cynwyd, operating manager of the anti-cruelty association, investigated the case and was instrumental in bringing it before the magistrate.
Among the spectators were Dr. Frank P. K. Barker, vice-president of the Lower Merion Board of Commissioners, and John H. Jefferies, Jr., General Wayne district commissioner and chairman of the recent Dog Quarantine Committee.

-SPORTLETS-

Bill Turkington, Haverford High hurler, continued his fine pitching for Bill Titlow's Cynwyd firemen by shutting out St. Luke's with three hits, the Union Fire Association winning the Twilight League game, 5-0. Narberth Boys' Club finally clinched the first-half league title by trouncing Gladwyne, 6-1, just as the second half is about to be wound up.

Narberth's Main Line League leaders lost an independent game to the North Penn Pros Tuesday night, 2-1. Bill Reynolds struck out ten North Penners and allowed but four hits. His teammates, however, were able to gather but three safeties.
